TOKYO, Nov. 8.—A mysterious disease has broken out among Allied forces in Korea during the past few months, Brig. Gen. William E. Shambora, surgeon for the Far East command, disclosed

The disease strikes suddenly and is characterized by fever and a headache-common symptoms of the early stages of several acute infectious diseases.

An official release from Gen. Ridgway's headquarters said it is strikingly similar to a disease first reported by the Japanese among their Manchurian troops in 1939. Tiny Virus Blamed.

"It is still too early to assert that the two diseases are, without doubt, identical," the announce-

The Japanese believe the disease is caused by a tiny virus carried by field mice and transmitted to man by mites. They called it "epidemic hemorrhagic The outbreak among United Nations command troops has not been checked by the use of either sulfa drugs or antibiotics, Gen. Shambora said. Blood transfusions from men who have recovered seem to ease the severity of new cases, he added. Gen. Shambora said some patients recover quickly. Others develop further symptoms, including hemorrhages under the skin, around the eyes and internal organs. In other cases, the disease affects the kidneys. Intensive studies are underway in Korea, Japan and the United States in an effort to isolate the disease organism, determine the method of transmissions and the best method of treatment, Gen. Shambora said.

Price Rise on Lamb Expected Here Under New OPS Regulation

The Government today approved ceiling prices for lamb which will make leg of lamb cost about 70.6 cents a pound whole-

Retailers were studying the order to see what effect it will have on their prices. One retailer, who said his retail price of a leg of lamb is 79 cents, guessed there might not be much change, at least for that item.

Generally, however, it was expected that the prices would be higher in most retail markets. The new regulations issued by the Office of Price Stabilization are effective next Tuesday.

New Prices Outlined.

One sets dollar and cents prices for lamb and mutton at wholesale. Another authorizes retailers to pass on to the public any changes in the wholesale prices. Heretofore the wholesalers have been operating under the general order which froze their prices at the levels they charged last Janu-

Under the new order the packer's price for prime and choice lamb carcasses will be about $61.20 per hundred pounds, and the wholesaler's price will be about $2.90 above that, according to the District office of the OPS. The good grades of lamb are uniformly $2 per hundred pounds less than prime and choice.

One District retailer said that about 3 cents a pound more than he had been paying.
